

Wanna make some CASH?

Have you ever taken a video and/or posted a video on YouTube featuring our motor and/or controller?

Dear Reader,

If you have ever taken a video and/or posted a video on Youtube™ where one of our motors and/or controllers is being used, you may be eligible for a CASH Reward from D&D Motor Systems. With our new Video Promotion Policy, depending on the quality of the video and how well it promotes the D&D Motor Systems electric motors and controllers, CASH Rewards can vary from around $30 to $120 (see details below).

To Maximize your CASH Reward, focus on:

1. Keeping the video between 2 -5 minutes.
2. Ensure the video includes clear shots of the D&D Motor Systems electric motor and/or controller.
3. Push the High Performance characteristics of the electric motor and/or controller as much as possible.
4. If the video is posted on YouTube™, ensure that there is a working, direct link on the main page directly to the D&D Motor Systems webpage (<http://www.ddmotorsystems.com>). Also, be sure to include the phone number (315-701-0635).

To see an example of an excellent electric motorcycle conversion, type the following URL in the address bar of your web browser:
